

06-262 Office of the State Library of Louisiana

This agency provides a comprehensive library system for the state by maintaining a core collection of materials for state government and for loan to parish libraries. Special efforts are made to provide library materials to blind, handicapped, and institutionalized individuals. The Office of the State Library of Louisiana has only one program, Library Services. Therefore the mission and goals of the Office of the State Library are the same as those listed for the Library Services program description that follows.
